

GET STARTED—RECOGNISING HATE

How do you find an opportunity to take social action in your community?

Think about how hate, in any of its forms, has subtly or overtly impacted your life or the lives of family and friends.

STEP ONE

What social issues do you see that are caused by hate?

Look around your community (school, hometown, neighbourhood, region, county, country). These can be big or small issues/challenges.

List as many as you can think of below.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

STEP TWO

What problem will you help solve?

Review your list and decide on the one issue you will focus on. Write it here.

STEP THREE

How would you describe the issue?

Then use the following questions to describe it in depth.

What is it? _____

Where do you see it? _____

Who does it impact? _____

When do you see it? _____

Why is it present? _____

To further inform yourself, you may choose to do additional research about the issue.
